Summit's Vision

India's BFSI sector is going through a revolutionary transformation with Government of India along with Reserve Bank of India strategizing to provide banking and financial services to each and every person in the country.

Thus, the BFSI Leadership Summit 2016, aims to create a platform to bring together the Governments, Regulators, Bankers, Insurance providers, Industry experts and other key BFSI stakeholders for deliberations on transforming the BFSI sector through innovative solutions.

Why Maharashtra

Government of Maharashtra is dedicated to work in sync with the Union Government and work towards robust payment system; secure banking operations, leveraging advanced technology and those aspects that can play important role in expanding financial inclusion.

Summit Objectives

- Creating awareness about BFSI initiatives in Maharashtra and across the nation.
- Technology to take banking and financial services to the last mile.
- Aadhaar, DBT and other key initiatives towards reimbursement of subsidies and other financial services to the remotest areas.
- Platform to discuss challenges & opportunities and bring out recommendations from policy makers, bankers, Industry and regulators towards the growth of BFSI services across the nation.
- Banking the unbanked and provide them with the robust payment mechanisms in delivering financial services.
- Encouraging the banking expanse through rural and co-operative banking.

Expo

The eGov BFSI Leadership Exhibition will create a platform for all the stakeholders to showcase their innovations, initiatives and the exemplary products and services to the audience of key stakeholders in BFSI and related sectors.

eGov in BFSI Sector

Since a decade, eGov magazine, part of Elets Technomedia, is reporting and writing about Banking, Financial services and Insurance industry. The summit has also provided platform for deliberations and discussions in terms of growth of BFSI sector in India through its flagship events like Elets Summit on Financial Inclusion and Payment Systems, eINDIA Banking Summit on technology in BFSI sector and various state events with a major focus in BFSI industry and expansion of Financial Inclusion across the nation. BFSI Posts magazine's biggest advantage is its ability to carry the views of all the stakeholders in its domain – policy makers, bankers, experts, industry leaders, etc through our experienced team of editors, researchers, and marketers.
